Brooks and McCormick Elementary School students were among the 50 winning artists recognized in the recent Animal Friends “Be Kind to Animals Week” Poster Contest sponsored by the Ohio Township animal resource center. The students’ art work currently is on display at the Camp Horne Road facility.

Moon Area School District first-grader Kayla O’Brien of Brooks took home first-place honors for her grade-level. Brooks first-graders Julie Crago and Emily Stanko, Brooks fifth-grader Sydney Stewart and McCormick second-graders Kenton Conley and Natasha Keller were awarded honorable mentions for their art work.

A total of 367 students from 14 schools submitted posters adhering to the contest’s “Pets Are For Loving” theme. In Moon Area, art teacher Deborah Day encouraged students to show themselves with a pet they love, have love or want to love for their contest entry.
