Fourth-Graders Participate In Special Black History Month Performance

Luke Easton (front), Brianna Geyer and Sarah Gilmore accompany their fourth-grade classmates during a slave spiritual.

Fourth-grade music students, taught by music teacher Lisa Jaworoski, wrapped up their Black History Month lessons on African-American song from with a special performance of five African-American slave spirituals on March 6 at Bon Meade Elementary.

More than 100 students clapped, dance and sang the songs from the 1800s during the narrative and musical presentation. It was the second year Mrs. Jaworoski planned the special performance.
