Bon Meade Students Showcase Talents

Dr. Solvay's second-grade class performs "Rock Around the Clock" during Bon Meade's annual Talent Show "Jump, Jive and Wail!"

Students at every Bon Meade Elementary School grade-level, performed in the building's annual talent show entitled "Jump, Jive and Wail!" on Jan. 28.

First -grade classes showed patriotism with "A Salute to the Armed Forces" with renditions of "Marine Corp Hymn," "Anchors Away" and more, while all four second-grade classrooms presented catchy American classic tunes including "Zip-a-dee-doo-dah," "I've Got Rhythm" and others.

In a separate portion, a total of 67 acts showcased the abilities of 100 Bon Meade third, fourth and fifth-grade students. A record number of students performed individual acts this year and talents showcased by individual and small groups included dance and baton twirling routines, instrumental pieces, comedy acts and martial arts presentations.

Bon Meade students were involved in each facet including program design, stage crew and ushering of the talent show. The show was split into the primary grade portions during the afternoon and the individual acts in the evening.

Special thanks go to Lisa Baldis, who chaired the PTC Talent Show committee, and her pool of parent volunteers as well as to Bon Meade music teacher Mrs. Lisa Jaworowski. Their efforts made the annual event a success.
