MAHS Student Named Top Competitor at Math Event, Tiger Tales Team Wins Second

Kayla Miller (left), Sid Govindarajan, Aaron Johnson, Chris Trampoch and Erin Knepper placed second in team standing at the third annual Penn State Beaver Math Competition on March 4.

Moon Area High School senior Ankit Medhekar was named top individual participant and a quintet of mathletes scored runner-up team honors at the third annual Penn State Beaver Math Competition on March 4.

Team "Tiger Tales" consisting of seniors Sid Govindarajan and Erin Knepper, juniors Kayla Miller and Chris Trampoch and sophomore Aaron Johnson bested teams from Center Area, Big Beaver Falls, Lincoln Park, Rochester Area, Western Beaver Area and Montour high schools to place second in the team competition.

Participating students answered two rounds of eight questions that ranged from traditional algebraic and statistical queries to real-life problems that required various mathematical completion strategies.

Medhekar correctly answered 13 of 16 competition questions to win top individual participant honors.

This was the second year of competition participation for Moon Area students.
