A total of 25 Moon Area High School students were recognized for dedication to their educational endeavors on Feb. 27 in the high school auditorium during the Pride in Academics award ceremony.

Katie Abbott, Donald Barrett-Behm, Ashley Botkin, Savannah Clark, Marissa Clements, Robert Tyler Gaylick, Julianna Grider, Jacob Hall, Nicholas Jonnet, Nicole Kunkle, Kenneth Leal Jr., Carson McKown, Georgia Nejus, Jaime Palmieri, Cody Quinn, Cassandra Rosenwald, Jacob Rosnack, John Sinclair, Kristen Sniezek, Lyndsey Walsh, Brandon Walters, Richard Wodarek, Katie Wojtechko, Nathan Yanosick and Toni Zusinas were chosen to receive the special recognition.

The award ceremony was resurrected this winter after many years of inactivity by high school assistant principal Susan Kazmierczak and strove to showcase students who were chosen via written recommendations their teachers.

Students involved were selected for their dependability and responsibility with assignments, constant work ethic, active classroom participation, preparedness and positive attitude in class work ranging from foreign languages and honors biology to concert choir and physical education.
