160 MAHS Musicians Perform at Walt Disney World

Moon Area High School Band and Orchestra musicians were selected to perform at Walt Disney World.

Moon Area High School Orchestra and Marching Band members showcased their musical talents at Walt Disney World in Orlando, Fla. in February.

Marching band members performed “The Henry Filmore March – His Honor” during the Magic Kingdom’s “Share a Dream Come True Parade” and orchestra members performed five selections to a full audience of more than 300 people during a concert at Downtown Disney’s Waterside Stage. The selections included “Nordic Invaders” by Jeremy Woolstenhulme, “Anthem” from the musical “Chess,” “Troika from Lieutenant Kije” by Prokofiev, “Andante” from Tchaikovsky’s Sixth Symphony and “Allegro from Concerto Gross” by G.F. Handel.

Moon Area’s 160 musicians were selected from a video audition of past performances and a resume outlining the two organizations’ musical achievements.
