MAMS Sixth-Graders Win “The Creative Convention”

Moon Area Middle School sixth-grade students Brian Frenz (left), Jessica Peng, Dana Murray and Yuki Adams topped 35 teams from five other area school districts to win “The Creative Convention” hosted by Montour School District’s David E. Williams Middle School on March 6. The convention is aimed at fifth and sixth-graders and centered on the theme of transformation.

During the competitive convention, students performed tasks including transforming a guitar case into another item, drafting an animation flip booklet and producing a super hero lwho was an ordinary person by day and masked crusader by night. The winning team created “The Jokester,” a comedian who fought to cure depression.
