Moon Area High School Senior Selected as Finalist for National Scholarship

MAHS Senior and finalist Savannah Starko with Principal Barry Balaski

Moon Area High School Senior Savannah Starko has been selected as a Finalist in the 2012 National Achievement[®] Scholarship Program, coordinated by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation. Around 15,000 finalists will be considered for National Merit Scholarships.

Winners will be chosen from the Finalist group, based on their abilities, skills, and accomplishments. The Finalist's academic record, information about the school's curricula and grading system, test scores, written recommendation from the school, information about the student's activities and leadership, and an essay are all part of the evaluation tools used to select winners.
